Good plot, but the novel is too long. Too many uninteresting characters in the house of stairs. The central characters are interesting, but the hippies in the house do nothing to contribute to the plot, they are just the background of it, though, of course, they are there to illustrate the generosity of the main character.

Seemingly out of kindness, Lizzie agrees to let Bell move back into the House of Stairs, the five-story Notting Hill boardinghouse where, seventeen years ago, a dreadful crime was committed. Maybe here, among the other odd residents, Lizzie can help pull Bell's life together again. But is it compassion or something else?
